JOB POSTING

Community Health Representative (CHR)

Klahoose First Nation seeks a motivated individual to provide preventative and educational health care services to Klahoose community members. This is a part-time position (20 hours per week) and is situated at Squirrel Cove.

The CHR works with community members, health care providers and other agencies to promote healthy living and the wellbeing of our citizens. The successful candidate will play a key role in promoting a healthy way of life, and will deliver public health programs that promote community health and wellness. The CHR is expected to deliver community health programs to fit community needs, and to act as a local resource for other community based health care workers.

The CHR is responsible for the reporting requirements set out in the First Nation Health Authority agreements.

The CHR reports to the Band Administrator and Chief and Council as required.

If interested, please send resumes and a cover letter by mail to Klahoose Band Office, by email to Administrator – mmckellar@klahoose.org or by fax to 250-935-6537

A detailed job description is available by request.
